

Independent Director of Iberdrola España, S.A.U. Chairman of the Audit and Compliance Committee.

Holds degrees in Economic, Political and Business Sciences from the Complutense University of Madrid.

Public Administration Technician (TAC)

Master's Degree in Business Administration (MBA) from the Polytechnic University of Madrid.

NOTEWORTHY EXPERIENCE IN THE PERFORMANCE OF HIS DUTIES AT IBERDROLA ESPAÑA:

Public Administration Technician (TAC, XIV campaign), with various positions in the Ministry of the Interior and the Ministry of Employment.

Associate Professor at Jaume I University (UJI), in the Department of Business Management and Administration. He has also been a non-tenured professor of the Emilio de Figuerola Chair at the Complutense University of Madrid. Supervising professor at the UNED. He has held the following positions, among others:

Chairman of the Spanish Ceramic Tile Manufacturer's Association (ASCER), Chairman of the European Ceramic Tile Manufacturers Federation (CET) and of the World Ceramic Forum.

Director of the Spanish Institute for Foreign Trade (ICEX) and of the Valencian Institute of Small and Medium Enterprises (IMPIVA). Director of the Castellón Port Authority and of the Valencia Port Authority (ports of Valencia, Sagunto and Gandía) on behalf of the Regional Government of Valenciana. Vice Chairman of the Strategy Committee of the Valencia Port Authority. Member of the Advisory Board of CIERVAL.

Director of Consorcio Valencia 2007, on behalf of the Spanish Government (America's Cup).

He has been a trustee of Fundación Iberdrola.

